DID YOU KNOW?

Young adults, aged 18 to 30, are still experiencing cognitive development, and this is one of the reasons why mental illnesses can be present at this time of life.

WHO CAN ATTEND MEETINGS?

Meetings are open to everyone with the focus on assisting young adults between the ages of 18 to 30.

MISSION STATEMENT:

To support young adults in gaining independence as well as encouraging others to create and reach their goals while transitioning into adulthood.

PHILOSOPHY:

We believe young adults have the potential to grow and contribute to the larger clubhouse community.

EDUCATION

We provide young adult members with support towards their educational and vocational goals. We have 30 young adults and 13 are either in education or are employed.

MEMBERS CURRENTLY IN EDUCATION:

Anthony B- DSP Modules, CRMA
Cheyenne H- University of Maine
Samuel H- University of Maine
Zachariah "Takoda" M- Adult Ed
Adam "A.J." W- Southern Maine Community College

Meeting Times: Every Tuesday at 11:00 AM.

A DREAM written down with a date becomes a goal. A goal broken down to steps becomes a plan.

PURPOSE

We make sure that every young adult feels supported as they transition into further into adulthood. We also provide information about opportunities for learning, personal growth, and much more!
